Travel Programs

Palm Springs Aerial Tramway
The Palm Springs Aerial Tramway is the world’s largest rotating tram car, transporting riders along a two-and-one-half mile ride along the breathtaking cliffs of Chino Canyon to the pristine wilderness of the Mt. San Jacinto State Park. During our approximately ten-minute journey, tram cars rotate slowly, offering picturesque and spectacular vistas of the valley floor below. Once we reach the Mountain Station at an elevation of 8,516 feet, you are on your own to explore the observation decks, natural history museum, documentary theaters, gift shop, and over 50 miles of hiking trails. We’ll also enjoy lunch at the Pine Café. Temperatures at the top are generally 30-40 degrees cooler than the bottom of the desert floor - check the weather and dress appropriately. Backpacks and picnic baskets are allowed but may need to be set on the floor of tram if the car is crowded. Please arrive at 7:45 a.m. for check in. The bus will leave promptly at 8 a.m. An adult must accompany children of all ages.

- Last day to register is Monday, March 9, or until filled.

The Last Ship
You won’t want to miss this rare opportunity to see multiple Grammy Award® winner, Sting, star in his own heartfelt and empowering new musical, The Last Ship. Featuring Sting’s original music and lyrics as well as a few of his best-loved songs, The Last Ship is coming to the Ahmanson Theater after a critically acclaimed Canadian, UK, and Irish tour. Set in the shipbuilding community in Tyne and Wear, UK, The Last Ship tells the story of a young man who returns home after 17 years at sea. Tensions between past and future flare in both his family and his town, set in a local shipyard and a community of working-class homes. Oversized bags, backpacks, briefcases, cameras and video cameras are not allowed inside the Theater and will be required to be checked if brought inside. Price includes admission and transportation. Please arrive at 11:30 a.m. for check in. The bus will leave promptly at 11:45 a.m. No children under 6 years old. An adult must accompany children of all ages.
